INTRODUCTION

In Caniço, east of Funchal, has grown the most quiet and pleasant resort in Madeira island. The all year mild climate, the beauty of its rocky coast and the unique clearness of the sea water, protected by the “natural reserve”, makes of Caniço de Baixo one of the few places where we still can feel the nature at its purest. Sitting in one of these rocks rise the Aparthotel TROPICAL providing an ideal holiday home for those who want independence of self-catering accommodation combined with the convenience of hotel facilities away from the bustle of centres or big resorts.

LOCATION

The Tropical is built on the top of a small cliff which surrounds a small bay right on the limit of the “sea natural reserve” of Garajau, located in the very quiet and peaceful resort of Caniço de Baixo, the sea front, and in the half-way between the airport to the capital city of Funchal, just at 10 minutes by car. The centre of Caniço is just at 20 minutes walk.

Distances:

- Airport 10 km
- Funchal 12 km
- Caniço (centre of village) 2 km
- Golf 9 km
